Battalion's History

In 1919, the Department of the Army established an Infantry Branch of the Senior ROTC program at the university

In 1919, Lieutenant Robert L. Campbell was appointed as the PMS of the program

In 1947, the program commissioned eight second lieutenants in the infantry

In 1954, program was converted from an infantry specific unit to General Military Studies (GMS)

In Sept 1968, ROTC became an elective course at NCA&T SU

As of 15 Dec 2000, the unit has been in operation for 52 years and has commissioned over 1500 officers
